WHEN WAGNER PLAYED HERE

McKee Discovered Great Infielder on Water Lily Team Near Pittsburg.

on Water Lily Team Near Pittsburg.

Hans Wagner, the fast infielder of the Pittsburg National League team, considered by many enthusiasts the best player in the business to-day, was discovered and put upon his upward path by Manager C. I. McKee, of the Bijon Theatre, who was in 1897 owner and manager of the Paterson team of the Atlantic League, or whileh Richmond formed a part.

Wagner was on the team, playing in the infield, He had been discovered on a water lily team near Pittsburg, and was first seen by Manager McKee throwing cobble stones at a fence in the attempt to break holes in the same. He was engaged at the time in doing minor work on railroad construction, He was picked up and was a factor in the success of the Paterson team. So widely did he become known, and so far did his fame spread that a number of the big league magnates got busy burning wire in the effort to secure him from Mr. McKee.

As a matter of fact, he was sold to Louisville for $2.000. Boston, Pittsburg and Louisville wanted the great player. Mr. McKee looked the field over and determined to sell to the highest bidder. The deal was effected by auction over the wire, Harry Pulliam, of Louisville, going the limit, and outbidding the other magnates. Wagner was getting $125 a menth with Paterson to see Wagner," said Mr. McKee last night, "I took him over to the hotel and we sent for Hans. When he came into our mighty presence, I told him that I had just disposed of, him to the big league magnate. Hans flushed up, for it had been his ambition to go up in his business, and he had known nothing of the deal that had been going on, After he collected himself, and we had had a glass of lemonada all around, at the expense of Mr. Pulliam, he ventured to ask this question: "Mr. Pulliam, if I go with you, will you keep me on the team and not farm me out to the water lilies, or will I have to go out into the woods and play on the back lots?

"You will play on my team all the season, if you don't make a single hit," was the magnate's reply, and a smi

Montreal Out for Blood and Will Put Up Stiff Contest-Baseball Gossip.

The Lawmakers will turn out this afternoon for the second game with the Montreal Club, whom they so de-afternoon for the second game with the Montreal Club, whom they so decisively defeated on Saturday.

The line-up of the Richmonders will probably be about the same, with the exception of the pitchers and the first basemen, Still, Long and Mulhall will be tried in the firing pit this aftermoon, each pitching three innings. Cowan will have to go on first, as Manager Shaffer has too sore a hand to try the work. That will leave Hinton and Vetter to do the catching. The outfield will be the same, but in the infield Keller will probably be afforded a chance of working on the bag nearest home.

Manager Shaffer says he is very well pleased with the work of the men on Saturday afternoon, and his hope of getting out a strong, fast aggregation gives promise of growing into realization. He is satisfied with the outlook in the grass region, and nearly as much so with the prospects in the infield. Here the only trouble to be feared is at third, but with two fast men trying for the position Manager Shaffer thinks he will have little trouble.

The game this afternoon, provided the diamond is fit to be played on, should be fast and exciting, Montreal was somewhat surprised at the drubbing the locals gave them in the first game, and they will go at it this afternoon with redoubled determination to win.

Montreal has a strong aggregation. All the players are big and heavy, and the infield is fast and snappy. New men will probably be tried in the box to-day, and the Richmonders will have plenty of opportunity to practice their batting eyes.

Louisville, and you shall rest in a Pullman car, too."

"Wagner went away much to the regret of his fellow-players on the team, and was happy. He made good, developing into the fastest infielder in the business, and a fierce hitter. His averages were so big that I have forgotten them. Then he went to Pittsburg for a handsome figure, and I will bet that the Pittsburg people would not let him go for $10,000." By winning from the Sparcers in the Y. M. C. A. Basketball League Saturday night, the Britons are now a rush, and the Britons secured in the first half a good lead, which their opponents could not overcome.

Old man Malachi Kitteradge demonstrated that he is yet far from a hasbeen as a wearer of the wind-pad. His work in Saturday's game was without fault.

Kelley in left has a baseball name, and he lived up to it by handling his two chances and figuring in a double play on one of them.

Derby is charged with allowing three hits and giving three passes. One of the hits, however, was due to the indecision of Kirkpatrick on an easy chance. Wildness in an opening game is not surprising.

That young man O'Neill has the all of a batter about him. In his firs game he made good this appearance by lacing out a couple of safe ones.

Reeve was as reliable in fielding Saturday as at the close of the season last year. His work was the stellar feature of Saturday's game. Cassidy is a favorite with the crowd

His pitching Saturday was excelent, but through nervousness or carelessness he neutralized his own work in the box by fumbling two infield hits, one of which Kirkpatrick could and should have braided. Vetter, one of the new ones, stands up to his work like a good catcher, and if he makes good with the stick, somebody clse is liable to lose out. should have handled.

Barring his wildness, Salve pitched midseason ball yesterday. With good control, he is likely to be in the hant for pitching honors. Now is the time to develop better team batting, which the club lacked last season. Several times Saturday, when a bunt should have been at-

Though Gus Salve, Richmond's hig left-hand twirler, did not make, apparently, a good showing in Saturday's game against Montreal, Manager Shaffer attributes it to the fact that Salve had arrived in town just three days before, and had not had sufficient time in which to get his arm in shape. Naturally, he would be a bit wild, especially when going up against a team as strong as the Canadians. Salve was put in the box more on account of the fact that most of the big batters of the visitors were left-handed, and left-handed batsmen find it more difficult to hit a left-handed pitcher than one who twirls with his right arm. nitcher than the right arm.

Manager Shaffer says he expects Salve to make good yet, and the New Jersey man will have every opportunity of showing the fans what he is capable of doing when in good trim.

The Lawmakers went up against a much harder projection Saturday than the majority of the fans knew. Many of the Montreal Club have been in big leagues and have made reputations for themselves. They are all good batsmen and they have a strong pitching and catching staff.

That a double play did not result wa-the Atlantic League, in 1897. From there he went to Louisville and then on and up. He is a fine pitcher, fast and with good control.

Kittredge, Montreal's catcher, has played in big leagues for years, and is well known all over the country. It has played in Chicago, Balt . Are and Washington, in all of which cities he made a reputation of being a strong man behind the bat. He is now manager and field captain of the Montreal Club.

TITMAN, RICHMOND'S STRONG OUTFIELDER.

Titman is playing in right garden. He is fast after files, and is one of the best hitters in the league. He started the season last year with the Lawmakers. He began to fall toward mid-season, and was drafted by Portsmouth, where he recovered his fine form, and soon had such a reputation as to make Richmond sorry that he had been released. Manager Shaffer was anxious to get him back this year, and after much dickering with Manager Moss, of the Truckers, succeeded. Titman is showing up in splendid form, and Shaffer is looking to him to be one of his star fielders and batters. Titman has played several years in various minor leagues, and is now giving promise of working himself into the major leagues.
